

Leave Policy - Page 1

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves annually. Leave requests should be submitted through the HR portal. Managers should review requests within two business days. Unused casual leave expires at year end.

Leave Policy - Page 2

Employees receive 10 sick leave days annually. Medical certificates may be required for absences longer than three consecutive days. Sick leave is intended for health-related recovery and medical appointments.

Leave Policy - Page 3

Earned leave can be planned in advance. Departments should ensure adequate staffing before approving extended leave periods. Employees are encouraged to coordinate with their teams.

Leave Policy - Page 4

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves annually. Leave requests should be submitted through the HR portal. Managers should review requests within two business days. Unused casual leave expires at year end.

Leave Policy - Page 5

Employees receive 10 sick leave days annually. Medical certificates may be required for absences longer than three consecutive days. Sick leave is intended for health-related recovery and medical appointments.

Leave Policy - Page 6

Earned leave can be planned in advance. Departments should ensure adequate staffing before approving extended leave periods. Employees are encouraged to coordinate with their teams.

Leave Policy - Page 7

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves annually. Leave requests should be submitted through the HR portal. Managers should review requests within two business days. Unused casual leave expires at year end.

Leave Policy - Page 8

Employees receive 10 sick leave days annually. Medical certificates may be required for absences longer than three consecutive days. Sick leave is intended for health-related recovery and medical appointments.

Leave Policy - Page 9

Earned leave can be planned in advance. Departments should ensure adequate staffing before approving extended leave periods. Employees are encouraged to coordinate with their teams.

Leave Policy - Page 10

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves annually. Leave requests should be submitted through the HR portal. Managers should review requests within two business days. Unused casual leave expires at year end.

Leave Policy - Page 11

Employees receive 10 sick leave days annually. Medical certificates may be required for absences longer than three consecutive days. Sick leave is intended for health-related recovery and medical appointments.

Leave Policy - Page 12

Earned leave can be planned in advance. Departments should ensure adequate staffing before approving extended leave periods. Employees are encouraged to coordinate with their teams.

Leave Policy - Page 13

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves annually. Leave requests should be submitted through the HR portal. Managers should review requests within two business days. Unused casual leave expires at year end.

Leave Policy - Page 14

Employees receive 10 sick leave days annually. Medical certificates may be required for absences longer than three consecutive days. Sick leave is intended for health-related recovery and medical appointments.

Leave Policy - Page 15

Earned leave can be planned in advance. Departments should ensure adequate staffing before approving extended leave periods. Employees are encouraged to coordinate with their teams.

Leave Policy - Page 16

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves annually. Leave requests should be submitted through the HR portal. Managers should review requests within two business days. Unused casual leave expires at year end.

Leave Policy - Page 17

Employees receive 10 sick leave days annually. Medical certificates may be required for absences longer than three consecutive days. Sick leave is intended for health-related recovery and medical appointments.

Leave Policy - Page 18

Earned leave can be planned in advance. Departments should ensure adequate staffing before approving extended leave periods. Employees are encouraged to coordinate with their teams.

Leave Policy - Page 19

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves annually. Leave requests should be submitted through the HR portal. Managers should review requests within two business days. Unused casual leave expires at year end.

Leave Policy - Page 20

Employees receive 10 sick leave days annually. Medical certificates may be required for absences longer than three consecutive days. Sick leave is intended for health-related recovery and medical appointments.

Leave Policy - Page 21

Earned leave can be planned in advance. Departments should ensure adequate staffing before approving extended leave periods. Employees are encouraged to coordinate with their teams.

Leave Policy - Page 22

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves annually. Leave requests should be submitted through the HR portal. Managers should review requests within two business days. Unused casual leave expires at year end.

Leave Policy - Page 23

Employees receive 10 sick leave days annually. Medical certificates may be required for absences longer than three consecutive days. Sick leave is intended for health-related recovery and medical appointments.

Leave Policy - Page 24

Earned leave can be planned in advance. Departments should ensure adequate staffing before approving extended leave periods. Employees are encouraged to coordinate with their teams.

Leave Policy - Page 25

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves annually. Leave requests should be submitted through the HR portal. Managers should review requests within two business days. Unused casual leave expires at year end.

Leave Policy - Page 26

Employees receive 10 sick leave days annually. Medical certificates may be required for absences longer than three consecutive days. Sick leave is intended for health-related recovery and medical appointments.

Leave Policy - Page 27

Earned leave can be planned in advance. Departments should ensure adequate staffing before approving extended leave periods. Employees are encouraged to coordinate with their teams.

Leave Policy - Page 28

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves annually. Leave requests should be submitted through the HR portal. Managers should review requests within two business days. Unused casual leave expires at year end.

Leave Policy - Page 29

Employees receive 10 sick leave days annually. Medical certificates may be required for absences longer than three consecutive days. Sick leave is intended for health-related recovery and medical appointments.

Leave Policy - Page 30

Earned leave can be planned in advance. Departments should ensure adequate staffing before approving extended leave periods. Employees are encouraged to coordinate with their teams.